UnKindness Of Ravens

Dispersed Aureole Fractions

The formation of seed floats from the aureole while nothing frames dispersion and you could be proper chaos.
Aureole—the raining of mathematics.

Vaild Radiator Dynch

The earth is bringing a toll I can't mourn my soul
Time goes before I know

...I drive the coastline, trance-speeding past everyone, past ancient red seers that shield the highway from their millennia of hope, saplings for which I am hardly a loop of dust haphazardly harnessing a breeze.

Living fast. But sing for the moment against the echoing spirit of a recording. This focuses the speed, the direction, and the hours....
